6 Your Duties

- 6.1 The Insured should take adequate care of Insured Product, follow all applicable manufacturing guidelines for care and maintenance, and prevent potential further damage.
- 6.2 For furniture exceeding seventy-six (76) centimeters in height, the Insured must ensure that appropriate safety brackets or wall anchors are installed and properly utilised in accordance with applicable EU safety regulations. Where the Insured has failed to install and maintain such safety devices in accordance with manufacturer specifications, We may reduce or decline a claim arising from furniture tipping, toppling, or falling.
- 6.3 When the Insured Product is outdoor furniture, the Insured must take reasonable care to protect it from loss or damage. This includes taking the following steps where appropriate:
 - 6.3.1 Use suitable protective covers, particularly when the furniture is not in use for extended periods.
 - 6.3.2 Ensure the furniture is placed on a suitable and stable surface and is not left in standing water or in conditions likely to cause avoidable damage.
 - 6.3.3 Take reasonable precautions during adverse weather conditions, including covering, securing, or storing the furniture where reasonably practical.
 - 6.3.4 Store or appropriately protect the furniture during prolonged periods of non-use, including seasonal or winter periods, where recommended by the manufacturer.

- 6.3.5 Follow the manufacturer's instructions for care, use, storage, and maintenance.
- 6.3.6 Where the Insured does not take reasonable care to comply with these duties, We may reduce or decline a claim only where such failure has increased the risk of loss or damage or has prejudiced Our ability to assess the claim.
- 6.4 As soon as You become aware of the occurrence of an Insured Event, You must notify Us immediately, at the latest within fourteen (14) calendar days, immediately notify the pertinent authorities and services of the event, if mandatory, obtain Our instructions before taking any action (e.g., repair or replacement of the Insured Product or new purchase) and, insofar as is reasonable, act accordingly. Otherwise, We may not be obligated to make a payment under the Policy.
- 6.5 The Insured has a duty to prevent further damage or loss once an incident has occurred. Failure to do so may reduce or void Your claim.
- 6.6 The Insured has a duty to pay all premiums and applicable fees on time and in accordance with Your billing schedule. Failure to do so may result in cancellation of coverage.
- 6.7 In the event that the insurance risk increases, We may change the terms of the Policy and request payment of any additional insurance premium. However, if the insurance risk decreases, We will inform You and You can request that We change the terms of the contract and reduce the insurance premium.

7 Breach of Obligations

- 7.1 If You violate any of the duties as specified in Your Duties or agreements intentionally, We are exempt from paying benefits and, in the event of a grossly negligent violation (which You bear the burden of proof for the absence of gross negligence), We are entitled to reduce the benefits in accordance with the severity of Your fault, unless the violation of the obligation does not impact the cause of the occurrence of the determination of the Insured Event, or the determination or the scope of Our obligation to pay benefits.
- 7.2 If a claim made by a Policyholder under a Policy contains information that is false or misleading or consciously disregards whether it is false or misleading, We are entitled to refuse to pay the claim and/or terminate the Policy.
- 7.3 If any claim under the Policy involves a fraudulent misrepresentation or fraudulent conduct of any kind, We are entitled to terminate the Policy from the date of submission of the fraudulent claim, refuse all liability in respect of any claim after the date of the fraudulent claim and not return to the Policyholder any of the premiums paid under the Policy.
- 7.4 When We refuse to pay the insurance benefit or reduce it, We must notify the Policyholder, the beneficiary or the injured third party and provide a detailed and reasoned written explanation of the reasons for the decision.

8 Payment of Your Insurance Benefit

- 8.1 Insurance benefits are paid solely on the principle of expense reimbursement. To this effect, We reimburse, at Our discretion, the costs for either the replacement of the Insured Product with an Equivalent Product or for its repair.
- 8.2 If the total cost of the repairs exceeds the sum insured, or if it is not possible to make repairs, the Insured Product can instead be replaced with an Equivalent Product.
- 8.3 Upon replacement of the Insured Product with an Equivalent Product, it is understood that the Insured Product no longer exists, and the Insurance Contract shall end immediately and automatically.
- 8.4 Transportation and Disposal
 - 8.4.1 You are responsible for arranging and paying all costs to transport or dispose of the Insured Product. We do not reimburse transportation, shipping, or disposal costs under this Insurance, unless explicitly stated otherwise in clause 8.4.3.

- 8.4.2 You may choose to dispose of the defective or no longer usable Insured Product yourself at Your own cost.
- 8.4.3 Once Your claim is approved, We will cover all costs for returning the repaired Insured Product to You or for delivering an Equivalent Replacement.
- 8.4.4 All decisions regarding transport-related services are final, and no further transport or disposal claims will be processed.
- 8.4.5 We reserve the sole discretion to determine whether repairs are conducted onsite at Your premises or at the designated repair centre.
- 8.5 In the event that the Insured Product is replaced, We reserve the right to take possession of the damaged purchases, once the replacement is complete.
- 8.6 In case there is an applicable excess, the excess will be factored into the reimbursement amount. The excess amount applicable to Your Policy can be found in Your Insurance Certificate.

9 Calculation of Your Insurance Benefit

- 9.1 The Insured (beneficiary) must unconditionally pay the excess either by cash or bank transfer following an accepted and paid claim. The excess amount is specified in Your Policy.
- 9.2 The insurance benefit shall be equal to the amount of the loss, which We determine in accordance with the Policy, and the rules and evidence supporting these facts and amounts.
- 9.3 If the method of indemnification requires the repair of the Insured Product, or if You prefer this method as it is more economical to repair the Insured Products, We shall pay the insurance benefit to the repair company, and You shall pay the amount of the applicable excess to us.
- 9.4 Upon replacement or return of an Insured Product, the insurance benefit (if any) and the status of the Insurance Contract shall be determined in accordance with clauses 9.4.1 to 9.4.3 below.

9.4.1 Insured Event Replacement

Upon replacement of an Insured Product following an Insured Event, the insurance benefit shall be equal to the acquisition value of the Equivalent Product, less the excess and outstanding insurance premiums payable. Upon payment of the insurance benefit, the Insurance Contract shall end automatically in accordance with clauses 8.3 and 11.2, and no further insurance benefit shall be available in respect of the Equivalent Product.

9.4.2 Manufacturer Manufacturing Warranty Repair (Product Retained)

Where an Insured Product is returned to the manufacturer or retailer for repair due to a manufacturer's defect and is subsequently returned to the Policyholder, no insurance benefit shall be payable in respect of that claim, such defects being excluded from cover under clause 1.2.6. The Insurance Contract shall remain in force, and cover shall continue in respect of the Insured Product for the remainder of the Period of Cover.

9.4.3 Manufacturing Warranty Return (Product Not Retained)

Where an Insured Product is returned to the manufacturer or retailer due to a manufacturer's defect and is not returned to the Policyholder (whether replaced, exchanged, or refunded by the manufacturer or retailer), no insurance benefit shall be payable under this Policy, such defects being excluded from cover under clause

1.2.6. The Policyholder shall be entitled to a refund of the unexpired portion of the insurance premium in accordance with clauses 13.1.1 and 13.1.4, and the Insurance Contract shall end upon such return.

9.6 When replacing a product with a new or an Equivalent Product, We can refer You to any retailer or partner. We shall pay the insurance benefit to the retailer directly, and You shall pay the amount of the applicable excess and any difference in pricing for an upgraded product to us where relevant.

9.7 We will investigate the claim within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of receipt of all the necessary information, determining the fact, circumstances, and amount of loss of the Insured Event. If the investigation lasts longer, We will keep You informed of the progress.

9.8 If the investigation lasts longer than three (3) months and the amount of the insurance benefit has not yet been agreed, We shall, at Your request, pay the undisputed amount.

10 Payment of Your Insurance Premium

- 10.1 The amount of the insurance premium, payment terms, and methods are specified in the Insurance Certificate.
- 10.2 The obligation to pay outstanding insurance premiums shall remain even after the termination of the Insurance Contract.
- 10.3 We can arrange for insurance premiums to be deducted from Your bank account automatically, provided You correctly take all the necessary steps required by Your current payment service provider.
- 10.4 We will deduct the unpaid insurance premiums, which are outstanding, from the insurance benefit. When We replace an Insured Product with another one, We may claim all outstanding insurance premiums, regardless of their payment terms.
- 10.5 If the person responsible for the damage has at least partially compensated You for the damage, We shall reduce the insurance benefit by the corresponding amount.

11 Sum Insured

- 11.1 The insurance benefit shall not exceed the sum insured. The sum insured is equivalent to the unsubsidized purchase value (e.g., before discount) of the Insured Product at the time of acquisition. We shall not be responsible for an incorrectly determined sum insured. It is the responsibility of the Policyholder to ensure the sum insured accurately reflects the value of the Insured Product at the time of purchase. The sum insured is specified in the Insurance Certificate.
- 11.2 The sum insured is recoverable i.e., a previously paid-out insurance benefit does not reduce the available limit (sum insured) for future Insured Events. This is not applicable however, in the event that the Insured Product is replaced with an Equivalent Product. No additional limits or benefits are available following a replacement.

12 Right of Revocation

- 12.1 We will refund you the full insurance premium paid if you decide to cancel the Insurance Contract within fourteen (14) calendar days of its conclusion (i.e., the issuing of the Insurance Certificate), provided that: (i) cover has not already commenced, and (ii) no claim has been made under the Policy. This applies only if you terminate Your contract via the approved channels (e.g., online claim portal, email, or telephone). The refund will be processed and paid to you within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the cancellation notice.

13 Policy Term / End of Coverage

- 13.1 We will refund the balance of the insurance premium paid for the unexpired term of the Insurance Cover specified in the Policy, if:

- 13.1.1 Due to the manufacturer's defect, the Insured Product is returned to the manufacturer or retailer or the product;
- 13.1.2 In case of loss or destruction of the Insured Product not due to the Insured Event, when evidence confirming this fact has been submitted.
- 13.1.3 Where the Insured Product has been delivered to the Policyholder, as confirmed by either the original retailer or the Policyholder, cancellation of this Policy after the fourteen (14) calendar day cooling-off period shall only be permitted in justified circumstances, including but not limited to:
- 13.1.3.1 (i) the Insured Product has been sold or transferred to another person;
- 13.1.3.2 (ii) the Insured Product has been permanently lost or destroyed;
- 13.1.3.3 (iii) the Insured Product is otherwise no longer owned by the Policyholder or is no longer insurable.
- 13.1.3.4 Where cancellation is accepted, any refund due shall be calculated as follows:
- 13.1.3.5 $\text{Refund} = (\text{Premium} \times \text{Remaining Days} \div \text{Total Days}) - \text{Claims Settlement Value}$
Where:
- 13.1.3.6 Premium means the total premium paid for the Policy;
- 13.1.3.7 Remaining Days means the number of days between the effective date of cancellation and the original expiry date of the Policy;
- 13.1.3.8 Total Days means the total number of days in the Period of Cover;
- 13.1.3.9 Claims Settlement Value means the total value of any claims settled under the Policy, including any cash payments made and the cost of any repairs, replacements, or other services provided by the Insurer.
- 13.1.3.10 If the result of this calculation is zero or less, no refund shall be payable.
- 13.1.4 Any refund due will be paid to the Policyholder within thirty (30) calendar days after the Insurer has received and accepted the Policyholder's cancellation request via the approved channels (e.g., online claim portal, email, or telephone).
- 13.2 We shall not refund the unused balance of the insurance premium paid if the product is lost or destroyed due to an Insured Event. In such cases, it is understood that after paying the insurance benefit (replacing the product with another), the sum insured shall be considered exhausted, the contract shall automatically end, and no unused balance of the insurance premiums shall be refunded, recovered benefit.
- 13.3 The Insurance Contract is intended to run for the full agreed term. Early termination by the Policyholder is generally not permitted, except in the justified circumstances set out in clause 13.1 and its sub-clauses.
- 13.4 Any additional outstanding payments owed by the Insured will still be owed after termination has been approved.
- 13.5 The cases of insurance premium refund, or part thereof, specified in the present Terms and Conditions are final, and no premium, or part thereof, shall be refunded for any other reasons not specified herein.
- 13.6 The Policy expires:
- 13.6.1 Upon expiration of the term specified in the Insurance Certificate;
- 13.6.2 By mutual agreement or unilaterally at Your initiative;
- 13.6.3 At Our own initiative, on the grounds provided for by law or the Policy, from the date specified in Our notice;
- 13.6.4 Upon destruction of the Insured Product.
- 13.7 If You have not specified the date of termination, the insurance shall cease to be in force at the date of the delivery or dispatch to the Insurer of the notice of termination. Notwithstanding this, there is no entitlement to terminate if the
